Thought Provokers

- What's something that seemed scary when you were younger but isn't anymore?
- What's a rule you think should exist that doesn't?
- What smell instantly reminds you of being little?
- What's something that always makes you laugh, no matter how many times you see it?

For Littles

- What do you think clouds are really made of?
- What's your favorite thing that's the color blue? Red? Green?
- What's the bravest thing you've ever done?
- What would a rainbow taste like?

Back to School

- Would you rather have a teacher who only speaks in rhymes OR one who can only whisper?
- Would you rather walk to school backwards every day OR skip the entire way there and back?
- Would you rather go to school in a castle with secret passages OR in a treehouse connected by rope bridges?

For Teens

- Would you rather your mom comments "SO PROUD OF MY BABY" on every single social media post OR your dad does TikTok dances in public every time he sees you?
- Would you rather have to wear Crocs with socks to school every day OR only be able to communicate through Minecraft villager sounds?
- Would you rather have your Spotify wrapped played over the school intercom OR have your screen time report posted on the bulletin board?
